

Activity One – Worksheet

Rights and Responsibilities Code

When using public transport it is your right to:

- Enjoy a safe and hassle free journey without experiencing anti-social behaviour – for example fighting, swearing or throwing food
- Travel on a bus, train or ferry or be at a station that is smoke free
- Travel with a driver who is free of distraction from other patrons
- Obtain seating if you have special needs
- Get off along your bus route anywhere after 7pm outside the CBD providing you advise the driver as you get on and traffic permitting

When using public transport it is your responsibility to:

- Buy a correct ticket at the train station or on the bus or ferry or carry a SmartRider with credit at all times, and tag on and off
- Show your ticket or SmartRider card for travel on request
- Carry proof of concession

- Stand for adults if travelling on the 50cent student fare
- Not eat, drink, litter, graffiti or damage your trains, buses, ferries and stations
- Respect other people by not yelling, swearing or acting in an anti-social way
- Not consume alcohol, drugs, solvents or other illegal substances
- Not intimidate other passengers by physically or verbally threatening them
- Keep the volume low and use earphones on all audio devices

Transit Officers have similar powers to Police Officers. This means Transit Officers have the right to:

- Ask for your name, address and date of birth – providing false details is an offence
- Contact the Police who will check with the central computer for your details
- Issue fines, and
- Make arrests

Fill in the following table based on the brainstorm:

| Expectations of Transperth services | Expectations of other passengers | Expectations of ourselves  |
|-------------------------------------|----------------------------------|--|
| To provide friendly, helpful staff  | Other passengers leave me alone  | I leave other people alone to get to where they are going safely |
|                                     |                                  |  |
|                                     |                                  |  |
|                                     |                                  |  |
